SUMMER FESTIVALS

Jazz Winnipeg Festival - Featuring an outstanding line-up of artists, the 2010 Groove-FM Jazz Winnipeg Festival will bring the best local, national and international performers to Winnipeg for 10 days of fantastic live music. Highlights include Martha Wainwright and her new project Sans Fusils, Ni Souliers (Jun 27); legendary hip hop group The Roots (Jun 28); acclaimed trumpeter and composer Terence Blanchard (Jun 30); Montreal diva Raneé Lee (Jul 1); the jaw dropping stylings of DJ Kid Koala (Jul 1), and the 16-year-old musical prodigy Nikki Yanofsky (Jul 4). Performances take place at various locations including free concerts in Old Market Square until July 4th.

Winnipeg Folk Festival - One of Canada's finest summer music festivals celebrates its 37th year with a stellar line-up that features legends, locals, and some of the best new Canadian folk voices and emerging artists from around the world. Birds Hill Park will come alive with the likes of the legendary Emmylou Harris; the Academy award-winning duo of Glen Hansard and Markéta Irglová; Juno nominated Sarah Harmer; indie-folk darling Andrew Bird, and hip-hop pioneers Arrested Development who will make their first ever Winnipeg Folk Festival appearance. This year's local talent includes recent Juno nominee Romi Mayes; The Wailin Jenny's; The Duhks; singer/songwriter Greg Macpherson; Del Barber and Weakerthans frontman John K. Samson. A festival not to be missed! (Jul 7-11).

Soca-Reggae Festival - The summer festival season continues with three nights of music, dancing, drinks, friends and fun with reggae and soca performers, both local and international. The air will be filled with the sweet smell of Caribbean and Latin flavours. Foods such as jerk chicken, peas and rice, patties, curry goat, roti and much, much more! The Caribbean spirit returns for another exciting weekend of non-stop celebration taking place in the Old Market Square (Jul 9-11).

Winnipeg Fringe Festival - This year the Fringe Festival goes beyond where no Fringe has gone before! Fringe and Beyond promises something for everyone. Presenting live theatre in an informal, accessible and inexpensive environment, the Fringe strives to break down traditional boundaries between audiences and artists, encouraging open dialogue between theatregoers and theatre creators. Audiences are invited to experience the work of seasoned veterans and emerging artists. Local, national and international performing companies benefit from working together and learning from each other in a vibrant and exciting festival atmosphere. Various locations in and around the historical Exchange District (Jul 14 - 25).

Folklorama - Get your 2010 passport ready for the largest and longest running multicultural event of its kind in the world! From traditional home-cooked meals to electrifying nightly performances by local, national and international entertainers, Folklorama is a feast for the senses. Presented at various venues throughout Winnipeg (Aug 1 - 14).

MTS Rock On The Range - Check out North America's premiere rock festival! The 2010 line-up for the nationally renowned festival will be highlighted by performances from some of rock's biggest artists, including Stone Temple Pilots; Godsmack; Three Days Grace; Buckcherry and recently added, Airbourne (Aug 7). Performances take place at Canad Inns Stadium.

The Winnipeg Ska and Reggae Festival

— The summer festival season begins to chill with a celebration of ska and reggae music to be performed at various venues in the downtown area (Sept 9-11).

MUSIC

Jazz on the Rooftop — Don't miss out on one of Winnipeg's coolest summer music scenes. Local musicians such as The Ron Paley Big Band (Jul 15); Janice Finlay's Hardbob Herd (Jul 29); Walle Larsson (Aug 12); U of M Jazz Camp Faculty (Aug 19), and Big Dave McLean (Aug 26) will convene on the Winnipeg Art Gallery rooftop for your outdoor delight.

Park Theatre — This exciting South Osborne venue combines the best in live music acts, live theatre, comedy, movies, a gourmet café and DVD rentals, all in a beautifully preserved historic building. Check out the summer line-up of musicians that includes Katie Murphy (Jul 2); Hold Paquin (Jul 6); Ghost Cousin (Jul 13); Eugene (Jul 29); Tom Fun Orchestra (Aug 6); Insisto Concert (Aug 9); Daryl Makk (Aug 13), and The Crooked Brothers (Aug 27).

Iron Maiden — Check out these metal legends on their highly anticipated North American Tour that boasts their new album The Final Frontier (Jun 30). Performance takes place at the MTS Centre.

Simon & Garfunkel — It has been over 40 years since Paul Simon and Art Garfunkel played in Winnipeg. The iconic singer-songwriter duo is back this summer bringing their memorable music to the MTS Centre (Jul 8).

Bon Jovi with Kid Rock - The summer just got hotter as Bon Jovi's The Circle Tour has confirmed that very special guest Kid Rock will join the band at Canad Inns Stadium in Winnipeg (Jul 17).

Neil Young — Don't miss this all-acoustic set by the legendary Neil Young. Enough said! (Jul 26). Concert takes place at the Centennial Concert Hall.

Meat Loaf — Remember this guy? He is still motoring with a tour that supports his forthcoming album Hang Cool Teddy Bear (Jul 27). Performance takes place at the MTS Centre.

Stompin' Tom Connors — Tom has put out 20 albums of original material, several children's books, an autobiography (with a second one coming), a movie, a television series, and countless memories for the Canadians that he has touched with his verses of Canada. A show not to miss! (Aug 4). Concert takes place at the Centennial Concert Hall.

Backstreet Boys — The boys return to Winnipeg performing the hits that will have all their fans screaming in the stands (Aug 11). Performance takes place at the MTS Centre.

Michael Bublé — Canada's very own Michael Bublé brings his Crazy Love Tour to Winnipeg with special guests Naturally 7 (Aug 13). Performance takes place at the MTS Centre.

Celtic Woman — Irish music sensation Celtic Woman brings their Songs From The Heart Tour to the MTS Centre due to overwhelming popular demand. Celtic Woman continues to delight live audiences with what critics are calling an "uplifting" and "beyond captivating" concert experience (Aug 15).

The Black Eyed Peas - Check out these multi-platinum recording artists on their The E.N.D. World Tour (Aug 18). Performance takes place at the MTS Centre.

DANCE

Young Lungs Dance Exchange — Don't miss LINK, an evening of performances that feature dance works in collaboration with artists of other mediums. LINK 2010 features new work by Johanna Riley, Alexandra Elliott, Branwyn Bundon, Renee Vandale, Coral Maloney, Ming Hon, Aimee Rushton and Tanja Woloshen (Jul 2 & 3). Performances take place at the Gas Station Theatre.

Ballet in the Park — Experience ballet in the beautiful outdoor setting of the Lyric Theatre nestled in Assiniboine Park. This RWB summer tradition celebrates its 38th year in 2010 and features a mixed repertoire of works showcasing dancers from the RWB Company and students from the RWB's Professional Division (Jul 28-30).

GALLERIES & MUSEUMS

Winnipeg Art Gallery — Be sure to visit local artist Diana Thorneycroft's latest exhibit - Canada, Myth, and History, Group of Seven Awkward Moments Series. You will see everything from The Trailer Park Boys communing with nature, a bear aiming a pistol at Winnie the Pooh, and Bob and Doug MacKenzie having a final brewski before being devoured by wolves (Jun 12 – Aug 22). Other exhibits to visit this summer are The Nude in Modern Canadian Art, 1920-1950 (Jun 28-Aug 22), and The Collection on View: The Academic Tradition in Europe & Canada, 1700-1900 (until Sept 30).

ace.art – Showing Up, Speaking Out explores the extent to which artists can motivate and facilitate civic participation by connecting local, national, and international artists with local communities through the collaborative production of ephemeral artworks deployed in public spaces throughout Winnipeg (Sept 1 – Oct 5).

Plug In ICA – Keep your eyes and ears open for the announcement of the fall 2010 grand opening of the new home for the Plug In ICA Gallery, located at 460 Portage.

The Manitoba Museum – New to the museum is Ancient Seas, an out of this world experience! You will be transported back in time to an era when Churchill was covered by an Ordovician Sea teeming with ancient marine creatures. Projected in dramatic three-screen animation, Ancient Seas is the harbinger of a new age for the Museum.

Manitoba Children's Museum – You will be itching to get into the new summer exhibition – Attack of the Bloodsuckers! This kid-friendly exhibition examines the what, why, when and how of mosquitoes, fleas, ticks, leeches and other parasites. Learn why bloodsuckers are important to the ecosystem - and how to keep them out of your system! (until Sept 6).

THEATRE

Theatre in the Cemetery – Enjoy a unique and entertaining theatrical performance that takes you through the St. Boniface Cathedral's cemetery. Hear stories from French, Metis and Manitoban history while visiting gravesites of historical characters such as Louis Riel. Performances are in July and August, from Wednesday to Sunday.

Rainbow Stage – Check out RENT, Jonathan Larson's Pulitzer-prize winning Broadway musical loosely based on Puccini's opera La Boheme. RENT follows a year in the lives of seven friends living the disappearing Bohemian lifestyle in New York's East Village (until Jul 9). Next up is the Biblical saga of Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat (Aug 3-27).

Celebrations Dinner Theatre – Did you ever wonder what happens at a museum when the crowds have gone and lights go out? In Night at the Museum of Rock and Roll, all of the icons that defined popular music for the past 50 years are coming to life, ready to Rock and Roll one more time (until Jul 31). Tom Jones is a world famous entertainer...but did you know he's also an archaeologist? Don't miss the exciting adventure of Tom Jones and the Temple of Doom (Aug 6 – Oct 9).
